

Call for Papers and Participation

2018 FMA Applied Finance Conference
11 May 2018 | New York, NY

The Eighth Annual Applied Finance Conference of the Financial Management Association International (FMA) will be hosted at St. John's University's Manhattan campus located in the heart of New York City's most vibrant neighborhoods. The Conference is much smaller and more focused than the FMA's traditional meetings and includes a relatively small number of papers to provide ample opportunity for presentations and discussion by participants.

Program Co-Chairs

- Betty Simkins, Williams Companies Chair of Business and Professor of Finance, Oklahoma State University
- Anna Martin, Executive Director, Applied Finance Institute & Alois J. Theis Endowed Chair in Global Finance, St. John's University

Paper Submissions & Program Committee Application

FMA seeks high-quality papers from scholars and practitioners in the fields of finance and accounting that:

- Inform practice and advance the frontiers of academic research in directions relevant to practice.
- Address issues that are relevant to contemporary issues globally and for policy formation and assessment.
- Introduce new hypotheses that have the potential to stimulate additional research.

Deadlines

- Program Committee Member Applications: Friday, 5 January 2018
- Paper Submissions: Friday, 5 January 2018

Submission Fee: US $25 (members) & US $35 (non-members)

About St. John's University

Founded by the Vincentian Fathers in 1870, St. John's University is a private, Catholic university with campuses in Queens, Manhattan, Staten Island and Rome, Italy, as well as a graduate center in Oakdale, New York. A campus in Paris, France, opened in the spring of 2009.

ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY

St. John's is organized into five undergraduate and six graduate schools. The university has nearly 25,000 full- and part-time undergraduate and graduate students at the University's six locations, including non-resident students representing 47 states, the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, the US Virgin Islands, and 116 countries. The Princeton Review named St. John's a Best Northeastern College. St. John's also appears in The Princeton Review's 2013 Edition of "The Best 377 Colleges."

www.FMA.org/AFC2018