CALL FOR PAPERS
2022 CONSORTIUM ON ASSET MANAGEMENT & FINTECH
Clayton Hotel | Dublin, ROI

Sponsored by the Bank of Ireland and supported by Cambridge Judge Business School's Centre for Endowment Asset Management (CEAM) and FMA, the Consortium is designed for European finance faculty who are currently working on research in asset management and related topics. Priority will be given to researchers who have received their doctorates within the last five years.

The theme for this year’s workshop will be Asset Management and Fintech. We particularly encourage papers within this theme that focus on: digital asset pricing, smart contracts, machine learning, robo-advising, digital platforms, textual analysis, blockchain, and cryptocurrency.

Consortium Co-Chairs
Mark Hutchinson, Professor and Chair of Finance, University College Cork
David Chambers, Invesco Professor of Finance, Cambridge Judge Business School, University of Cambridge
Mark Mulcahy, Professor in Corporate Finance, University College Cork

Consortium Goals
Present high quality new and unpublished research
Bring together younger scholars working in asset management and related topics and help them benefit from engaging with each other and gaining exposure to more senior faculty.

Format and Participation
The consortium will be focused, with 5-6 high quality papers, discussants, and a limited number of other researchers. The program will also include a keynote presentation by Raghavendra Rau, Sir Evelyn de Rothschild Professor of Finance, University of Cambridge Judge Business School.

Accepted presenters will be exempted from paying the registration fee and will be invited to a conference networking dinner. One night’s accommodation will be covered for presenters.

Best Paper Prize
The authors of the best paper prize will receive $500 USD and be invited to present their paper at a future FMA European Conference.

To learn more, visit www.fma.org/consortium2022.

Application and Selection Process
Papers must be received by 29 October 2021. Decision notices will be sent early December 2021.
