2019 FMA Finance Leaders' Conference

7 - 8 March 2019 | New York, NY

The Finance Leaders' Conference is the only international conference strictly for undergraduate and MBA level students held each spring. The conference addresses the needs and concerns of finance and finance-related students. Conference attendees typically learn about what it takes to succeed in various financial careers, sharpen their leadership and communication skills, expand their professional contacts, learn from experts on how to start their career and achieve their goals, and visit local financial institutions and companies.

All sponsors and exhibitors receive:

- Logo (linked to company website) on the conference website and a logo in the conference agenda
- Mention in the conference welcome address
- Logo placement in all marketing communications
- Blurb in post-conference email
